

Serial No. 10/751,280

Law Offices of Natan Epstein
Attorney Docker: DE063Amendment

In response to the Final Action, please amend the claims as indicated on the accompanying listing of the amended claims.

Remarks

In response to the objection to Claims 11 and 44, the status of Claim 11 has been corrected to indicate its previous amendment in the response of December 13, 2005, and Claim 44, shown by mistake to lack dependency in the last response, has been corrected to reflect its correct dependency as amended in the December 13, 2005 response.

The substantive rejections

Following the Action, two independent claims stand rejected: these are Claims 28 and 64.

Claim 28 as amended incorporates the subject matter of its dependent claims 37 and 40, now canceled. Claim 40 has been allowed in the Action and as amended, independent Claim 28 is now believed to be in condition for allowance together with its remaining dependent claims 23-25, 29-32, 39 and 43.

Claim 64 as amended incorporates the subject matter of its dependent Claim 66 which was indicated to be allowed in the Action and is now canceled. As amended, independent claim 64 is now believed to be in condition for allowance together with its remaining dependent claims 65 and 67.

Serial No. 10/751,280

Attorney Docket: DE063

Rejected dependent Claims 60 and 61 have been cancelled without prejudice.

Claims 54, 55 dependent respectively upon Independent Claims 46, 47 are indicated to be rejected in the Action Summary but are said to be allowable as dependent upon Claim 50.

However, no reason is given in the Remarks for their rejection as dependent on allowed Claims 46, 47 and it is urged that they are also allowable in this alternate dependency as directed to structure not shown or suggested in the cited reference.

Review and reconsideration of the application in light of the foregoing amendments and remarks is requested. All claims in the application are now believed to be in condition for immediate allowance and such action is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,
